

NEVADA'S NECESSITIES.

"The past rises before me like a dream. Again we are in the great struggle for national life. We hear the sound of preparation, the music of boisterous drums and the heroic voices of silver bugles. We see thousands of assemblages and hear the appeals of orations."

These words spoken by Bob Ingersoll at a national reunion, some years ago, still echo in the hearts of those who heard them, and these echoes awaken in the breasts of every lover of mankind a longing to see the best interests of humanity, as represented by the American people, forwarded by the free coinage of our staple product, silver, and if such an end cannot be reached save by the total disruption of the two great parties, who have, since 1873, been subservient to the demands of Wall street, and her satellites, then let such disruption come and in their place let the silver party hoist its banner above the ruins wrought by individual selfishness and party chicanery. The miner, the mechanic, the farmer, in fact all citizens of this great republic, whose wives and babes are fed and clothed by the honest toil of father and husband, should enroll their names upon the scroll of the silver league; the friend of the laborer, the benefactor of our country and the only exponent of our financial security in United States. It is time that the American people awaken from their lethargy and cast off their golden chains, forged by the joint efforts of grasping capitalists and scheming politicians, which have for twenty years bound them in the serfdom of poverty and toil, and uniting in one grand party upon whose silver escutcheon no stain of corruption, no blot of selfishness can ever be traced; and shoulder to shoulder led by men of integrity and moral worth, contest every inch of the battle ground in the coming great struggle, nor rest nor waver until their representative shall be fairly and firmly established in the White House at Washington.

TOBIAS.

THE RIGHT RING.

The Virginia City Chronicle says: The course pursued by Mr. Newlands at the Minneapolis convention is entitled to the praise of every friend of silver everywhere. He has stated his ultimatum to the convention—free coinage of silver or nothing. If the convention refuse to put free coinage in the platform, then he will visit the Democratic convention in Chicago, and will see what they will do. If they adopt free coinage, he will act with the Democrats. If the Democrats refuse to adopt free coinage, then he stands with the people of Nevada in opposition to both parties and for free coinage anyhow, with some presidential candidate yet to be named.

Rather Luke Warm.

The Enterprise heads a telegraphic dispatch, "Stewart will Support Harrison."

Look down the column about six inches and you see how Stewart is going to fall in line for Harrison.

The dispatch says: Senator Stewart, the representative silver agitator from Nevada, said, in reply to a question as to what the Democrats would do on silver: "Bah! they will do just the same as the Republicans. Why, the gold bugs will send a million dollars, or two millions, if necessary, to buy up the whole Convention."

Now it strikes us that this sort of support for Harrison will not help him much.

Stewart and Jones will have to do one of two things; drop Harrison or drop the silver issue.

They are 21 years of age and can do as they please.

In the old days of steamboat racing on the Mississippi one sambo was enough to sit on the safety valve to hold it down. The gold-bugs of Nevada go the steamboat captains one better, they put both the Enterprise and Gazette on the valve to hold down the free coinage feeling. She'll pop when the explosion comes.—Silver State.

Mrs. Stevenson refuses to resign as a member of the Woman's Commission to the World's Fair. She announces that whether she lives in the State or not, she will hold the place.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. n6tf Proposals for Supplies.

Mint of the United States, Superintendent's office, Carson City, Nevada, May 16, 1892.
Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned until 12 o'clock noon on the 20th day of June, 1892, for furnishing such supplies as may be required from time to time by this Mint during the twelve months ending June 30th, 1893, embracing acids and other chemicals, wood, charcoal, salt, borax, soap, oils, crucibles, covers, stirrers, buckets, cotton cloth, dry goods, metals, hardware and other necessary supplies. Schedules in blank forms for proposals, with information as to the quantities of such articles that will probably be required, will be furnished on application. Proposals will be considered separately on each article, and upon the comparison of the prices and samples of articles furnished, and will be accepted as to the whole or a part as may be deemed for the best interests of the government. The right to reject any and all bids being reserved. Requisitions will be made on the parties whose bids may be accepted, and the articles must be furnished without delay. Proposals, to receive consideration, must be accompanied by a sufficient bond, with one or more sureties, and by samples or such description of the articles as will clearly designate the kind and quality. Proposals should be addressed to the undersigned and inclosed, with a copy of the advertisement in a sealed envelope, indorsed, "Proposals for supplies." The bids will be opened and registered at the hour named in the presence of bidders and the officers of the Mint.
